

One Equity Partners Increases Stake in Verimatrix Renewed support in the company strategy

Aix-en-Provence, France and San Diego, USA, May 13, 2020 – Verimatrix (Euronext Paris: VMX), today announced it has been informed that One Equity Partners (“OEP”) acquired all 3,017,392 Verimatrix shares owned by Jolt-Capital in an off-market transaction.

Private equity firm Jolt-Capital invested in Verimatrix in 2016 to support the transformation of the company into a software company, notably through the sale of its historical semiconductor fabless business fall of 2016.

OEP invested in Verimatrix in January 2019, in the context of the financing of the acquisition of American company Verimatrix, Inc. and since then is a cornerstone shareholder of the Company supporting its development and strategy. Following this transaction, OEP, through affiliate company OEP Inside B.V., increased its shareholdings from 25.49% to 29.04% of the company's capital.

Mr. Jean Schmitt, chairman and founder of Jolt-Capital, remains an independent director of Verimatrix.

Amedeo D’Angelo, Verimatrix Chairman and CEO, commented: “I want to thank Jolt-Capital for having supported our transformation and growth strategy for the last four years. In parallel, it is good and encouraging to see the renewed support of our cornerstone investor OEP.”
